2 The KWIC Index

This KWIC (Key Word In Context) index is intended to serve as a compass for the talks and papers on the workshops. It is an alphabetical listing of all important words which appear in the titles. If one is interested in a particular topic, for example "Extended ML", then one goes to the respective page and finds on the left hand side pointers to the "References" part. In our example one discovers that although everything about "Extended ML" seemed to be covered by [ST90b] research on the language continues [SKT94].
